Our Vision

A future in which women are decision makers and share in the economic success in the field of Data Science and AI.

Our Mission

To cultivate the next generation of Data Science and AI leaders by providing resources for upskilling, networking, mentorship, and growth opportunities, from students to professionals.

Our Values

We believe that when women thrive in the field of Data Science and AI, we make a meaningful impact on society and peoples' lives. Through the strength of our community and our commitment to innovation, we make resources developed by women available to all, at no cost.

What We Do

Women in Data Science (WiDS) Worldwide empowers women to reach their full potential in the field of data science. WiDS elevates and celebrates the outstanding work of women on a global scale, fostering respect, collaboration, connection, and visibility. The WiDS community creates access to programs, content, and resources that inspire, educate and support, so that vibrant voices and ideas can be shared with the world.
